You're a Lion, Mama! Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh You're A Lion You're A Lion

Long, Long Ago People Used To Say You're A Lion You're A Lion, Mama

[Most people know this as "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," which is a popular song around the world. It is based on a song in the Zulu Language from South Africa that was written in 1939 by a musician named Solomon Linda. Someone in America [Pete Seeger] heard it and decided to write English words. It became a worldwide hit. The Zulu word for lion is "imbube." To call to a lion you say "mbube." We're not sure why you would want to call a lion. Usually you want them to go away from you!]

Lion Sleeps Tonight Lyrics
(A-weema-weh, a-weema-weh, a-weema-weh, a-weema-weh)

In the jungle, the mighty jungle
The lion sleeps tonight
In the jungle the quiet jungle
The lion sleeps tonight

Near the village the peaceful village

The lion sleeps tonight
Near the village the quiet village
The lion sleeps tonight

Hush my darling don't fear my darling
The lion sleeps tonight
Hush my darling don't fear my
darling
